Index

Abercrombie, John W. 103.

Andrews, Lincoln C. Prohibition Enforcement as a Phase of Federal Versus State Jurisdiction in American Life, 77–87.

Appropriations, congressional, for education, 102.

Belknap, W. B. Ways and Means Toward Equitable Adjustments of State and Federal Taxes, 9–15.

Burns, Zenas W. Why Federal and State Bases of Taxation Should Be Separate, 21–7.

Blue sky laws, passage of, 151, 153.

Bucket-shop scandals, 153.

Business in New York, conditions of, 152–3.

Cadwalader, Thomas F. The Defeat of the Twentieth Amendment, 65–9.

Capen, Samuel P. Wanted: An Active Co-ordinated Government Bureau of Education, 97–101.

Centralization: dangers of, 68; issue of, against decentralization, 127; tendency toward (Federal government), 26.

Cheney, Howell. State Versus Federal Regulation of the Labor of Children, 41–58.

Child labor: amendment, 28–9, 34, 35–7, 62, 65, 68; committee, national, 32, 70–1; decline of, 40; law, first and second, 90–1; success of, 63; numbers employed, 37–40.

Child Labor, Is, a Government or State Question? James A. Emery, 34–40.

Child Labor Legislation, The States Responsibility Toward. Paul U. Kellogg, 59–64.

Child Labor Question and the Federal Government, The. Owen R. Lovejoy, 28–33.

Children, number employed in industry, 31, decrease in, 41.

Commerce, Federal control of, 145, 146; regulation of, by Congress, 143; state-Federal jurisdiction, problem of, 143–5.

Compensation laws, shortcomings of, 60–2.

Concentration of Control in Power, The. H. S. Raushenbush, 118–25.

"Concurrent power," meaning of, 92–3.

Congress, duty of, re commercial control, 148.

Constitution, U. S., present day needs and the, 4.

Consumers' League of Pa., child labor study of, 61.

Controlling companies, re power, stock and holdings of, 120.

Controversial Subject of Federal Control in Education, The. Frank Pierrepont Graves, 95–6.

Co-operation, state and Federal, need for, 72.

Corporate transactions, need for publicity in, 150.

Corporations, make-up of, 149, 150; state control of, 155.

Court decisions, 141, 142; re child labor law, 90; re Federal subsidy system, 103; re Federal Trade Commission, 144; re industries, fixing rates, 110; re rate-base, 128.

Defeat of the Twentieth Amendment, The. Thomas F. Cadwalader, 65–9.

Demand, increasing, for child labor, 31.

Dilemma of Giant Power Regulation, The. John H. Gray, 110–7.

Double jeopardy problem, 92.

Education: fallacies re, 106–7; and labor, relation between, 45; new situation in, 107–8; Federal control of, proposed legislation for, 96; present needs in, 95; public, per capita cost, 43; proposed Federal bill and purpose of, 96.

Education, The Controversial Subject of Federal Control in. Frank Pierrepont Graves, 95–6.

Education, Federal Subsidies For. Austin F. Macdonald, 102–5.

Education, State and Federal Jurisdiction in. Charles R. Mann, 106–9.

Education, Wanted: an Active Co-ordinated Government Bureau of. Samuel P. Capen, 97–101.

Educational bills before Congress, 97; system, building up to fit child's needs, 32.

Eighty per cent credit clause, 23.

Electrical industry, national problem of, 113; present situation in, 112; suggestions toward, 113–7.

Electricity, interstate control of, 111.

Emery, James A. Is Child Labor a Government of State Question? 34–40.

Employes, as shareholders of stock, 150.

Employment, decline of child, 40.

Federal control of commerce, courses open re, 146; proponents of, 145, 146.

Federal Co-operation in State Sources of Revenue. Mark Graves, 16–20.

Federal Power Commission, power of, 134; supervision of, over water powers, 132–3.

Federal power and progress, 73.

Federal Regulation of Corporations under the Commerce Clause. Abram F. Myers, 143–8.

Federal Revenue Act, 23.

FEDERAL AND STATE RELATIONS IN THE CONTROL OF POWER DEVELOPMENT AND DISTRIBUTION Philip P. Wells, 126–31.
FEDERAL SUBSIDIES FOR EDUCATION. Austin F. Macdonald, 102–5.
FISCAL SYSTEM, NEED FOR READJUSTING THE, OF THE UNITED STATES. Edwin R. A. Seligman, 1–8.
Federal Trade Commission, 140.
FEDERAL VERSUS STATE JURISDICTION OVER POWER DEVELOPMENT AND ITS SUPERVISION. O. C. Merrill, 132–7.
Federal Water Power Act, 128.
Fifty-fifty system, 102.
French compensation laws, 60.

Giant Power, dual control of, impossibility of, 111; legislation, 130.
GIANT POWER REGULATION, THE DILEMMA OF. John H. Gray, 110–7.
Government: Federal, 108; criticism of, 67; function of, 97–8; powers of, 145; present activities of, 98–9; what is wanted from, 99, 100: change in, 16; interference, in business, 139, 140, 151; in prohibition and child labor, 37, 59; relation of, state to Federal, 9; supervision, inheritance and estate taxes, difficulties of, 22.
GRAVES, FRANK PIERREPONT. The Controversial Subject of Federal Control in Education, 95–6.
GRAVES, MARK. Federal Co-operation in State Sources of Revenue, 16–20.
GRAY, JOHN H. The Dilemma of Giant Power Regulation, 110–7.

Hamilton, Alexander, work of, 2.
Holding companies, control by, of electrical industry, 112; danger in, contracts, 123; financing, affect of, on operating companies, 14.
Holmes, Justice, 141.

Illiteracy, condition of, in states, 44.
Individual: protecting liberty of, 4; rights of, 149.
Industries, need for regulation of, 110.
Interstate commerce, Federal control of, 3.
Interstate transmission, problem of, 135–7.
Investor, money accruing to, 128.
IS CHILD LABOR A GOVERNMENT OR STATE QUESTION? James A. Emery, 34–40.

Jurisdiction: conflict between Federal and state, 9; economic factor in, 88; problem of, 9, 10; state, where ends, 135.
Jurisdictional disputes, classes of, 12–3; rôle of social factor in, 89.

Kelley, Mrs. Florence, 61.
KELLOGG, PAUL U. The State's Responsibility Toward Child Labor Legislation, 59–64.
Keynes, J. M. 90.

Law enforcement, problem of, 74.
Licenses, Federal, measures for, 147.
LINDSAY, SAMUEL MCCUNE. Social Aspects of Federal and State Control, 88–94.
Liquors, prohibition of, state and Federal bickering re, 77.
LOVEJOY, OWEN R. The Child Labor Question and the Federal Government, 28–33.

MACDONALD, AUSTIN F. Federal Subsidies for Education, 102–5.
MANN, CHARLES R. State and Federal Jurisdiction in Education, 106–9.
Manufacturers, interest of, in child problem, 40.
Martin Act (New York), 152, 153, 154.
MERRILL, O. C. Federal Versus State Jurisdiction Over Power Development and Its Supervision, 132–7.
Minimum standards of child labor, 70.
Monopolies, control of, 74–5.
MONTAGUE, GILBERT. More Government in Business—Does Wall Street Need It or Main Street Want It? 138–42.
MORE GOVERNMENT IN BUSINESS—DOES WALL STREET NEED IT OR MAIN STREET WANT IT? Gilbert Montague, 138–42.
MYERS, ABRAM F. Federal Regulation of Corporations Under the Commerce Clause, 143–8.

National Association of Security Commissioners, formation of, 155.
National Education Association, work of, 93.
National organizations, aid of, re state problems, 13.
National Tax Association, conference called by, 12.
NEED FOR READJUSTING THE FISCAL SYSTEM OF THE UNITED STATES. Edwin R. A. Seligman, 1–8.

PINCHOT, GIFFORD. The State, the Nation and the People's Needs, 72–6.
Politics, influence of economics on, 1.
POWER DEVELOPMENT, FEDERAL VERSUS STATE JURISDICTION OVER, AND ITS SUPERVISION. O. C. Merrill, 132–7.
Power development, problem of, 132; public control of, factors in, 118–9.
Prohibition Amendment, 4, 91; enforcement, 83–6; move toward national, 79; reaction to, 81–3.
PROHIBITION ENFORCEMENT AS A PHASE OF FEDERAL VERSUS STATE JURISDICTION IN AMERICAN LIFE. Lincoln C. Andrews, 77–87.
Public opinion, 142.
Public, a silent, re child labor amendment, 29–30.

Railroads, need for unified national, 138.
"Rate base," 128.
RAUSHENBUSH, H. S. The Concentration of Control in Power, 118–25.
Registration area of states, tests of, 59, 60.
Regulation, of water power, etc., 129; solution of, 130.
Resources, natural, conservation of, 75.
Revenue: Federal, 6, 7; securing, 5; solution of, 8; independent for U. S. government, 3; securing adequate, for American municipalities, 17.
REVENUE, FEDERAL CO-OPERATION IN STATE SOURCES OF. Mark Graves, 16–20.

School: attendance, 42; problem and child labor, 39; relation of state wealth to, 106.
Security issues, regulation of, 128.
SELIGMAN, EDWIN R. A. Need for Readjusting the Fiscal System of the United States, 1–8.
SOCIAL ASPECTS OF FEDERAL AND STATE CONTROL. Samuel McCune Lindsay, 88–94.
South, educational responsibilities of vs. north, 44.
State, authority of, 149; and nation, relation between, 126; objections, to Federal aid, 27; standards re child labor, varying, 30.
STATE AND FEDERAL JURISDICTION IN EDUCATION. Charles R. Mann, 106–9.
STATE, THE NATION AND THE PEOPLE'S NEEDS, THE. Gifford Pinchot, 72–6.
STATE REGULATION OF CORPORATIONS BY POLICING SALES OF SECURITIES, Keyes Winter, 149–55.
STATE VERSUS FEDERAL REGULATION OF THE LABOR OF CHILDREN. Howell Cheney, 41–58.
STATE'S RESPONSIBILITY TOWARD CHILD LABOR LEGISLATION, THE. Paul U. Kellogg, 59–64.
Stockholder; concept of, in large corporation, 138; information entitled to, 139.
Subsidies, Federal, state opinions re, 104; opposition to, 103; similarity in, 102.
SWIFT, WILEY H. What the National Child Labor Committee Is Doing at the Present Time, 70–1.

Tax: estate, Federal Government and, 18; income and inheritance, 6, 12, 17, 18, 21, 24.
Taxes, Federal, 5–6; problem of death and estate, 10–11; income, exemption, 25; real estate, 6, 7.

WANTED: AN ACTIVE CO-ORDINATED GOVERNMENT BUREAU OF EDUCATION. Samuel P. Capen, 97–101.
Water power, Federal and state supervision of, 132–3.
WAYS AND MEANS TOWARD EQUITABLE ADJUSTMENTS OF STATE AND FEDERAL TAXES. W. B. Belknap, 9–15.
Wealth vs. expenditures, state, 43.
Webb-Kenyon Act, 78.
WELLS, PHILIP P. Federal and State Relations in the Control of Power Development and Distribution, 126–31.
WHAT THE NATIONAL CHILD LABOR COMMITTEE IS DOING AT THE PRESENT TIME. Wiley H. Swift, 70–1.
WHY FEDERAL AND STATE BASES OF TAXATION SHOULD BE SEPARATE. Zenas W. Bliss, 21–7.
WINTER, KEYES. State Regulation of Corporations by Policing Sales of Securities, 149–55.